Kirilenko's Kids and Friends to "Assist" Utah Communities this Holiday Season

Andrei and Masha Kirilenko, the Kirilenko's Kids Foundation, teammates and others will announce their own initiative to give back to their community this Holiday Season. Assistance will be provided to the Utah Food Bank, The Road Home, Neighbor to Neighbor Program and to purchase toys for children who are in need. Several dear friends and current Utah Jazz teammates and their foundations have joined Andrei and Masha in this effort to make a difference, including Deron Williams (Point of Hope Foundation), Kyle Korver (The Kyle Korver Foundation), Brevin Knight (Assist by Knight Foundation) and teammate Carlos Boozer. Additional community partners supporting this endeavor include the Utah Sports Commission, KSL 5 TV, Simmons Media, Zions Bank, Layton Construction, Utah Jazz, KJZZ and 1320 KFAN. Together the players, foundations and local partners have joined to commit $30,000 to help launch this initiative to support these outstanding community programs that do so much good throughout Utah.

Kirilenko's Kids, its friends and partners are excited about the opportunity to help the community by donating these resources to purchase food, toys, shelter and other necessities for those in need during this time of the year. This also includes partnering with others in the community over the next several weeks to try and secure more assistance to help those who are less fortunate.

The group is encouraging Utah businesses and individuals to get involved in making a difference as well. Donations can be made at any Zions Bank location on behalf of Kirilenko's Kids, or online at www.KSL.com.
